4. [ ] Jim Lowenstein, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called and said Senator Pell had made one of his "out of the blue requests." He said the Senator had asked him for the name of the Agency representative [ ] Lowenstein said he told the Senator the Agency might want to handle this personally with him or provide the information in a letter. I told Lowenstein this would have to be taken up with the Director and if there was any problem I would be back in touch with him. He said he understood.

5. [ ] Met with Bill Ashworth, Arms Control, International Law and Organization Subcommittee staff of Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who told me that the letter request for Agency briefing is on Chairman Muskie's desk. He will call me as soon as it has been signed. Although a tentative date of 23 May has been established, the Committee would appreciate an earlier date if one can be worked out. Ashworth will talk to me further after the letter receives final approval by Chairman Muskie. Carl Duckett, DDS&T, has been advised.

6. [ ] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and delivered to him a breakdown by Agency and component of the various elements of the IC budget. Slatinshek will retain this backup book in his own files and will return it as soon as it has served its purpose. Slatinshek requested that we sweep the conference room at 2116 RHOB prior to the Director's appearance Thursday morning. Security has been advised.

7. [ ] Met with Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, who told me that the conference room at 2116 RHOB will be utilized on Thursday morning so that the Committee will not have to break up at 10:00 to make room for other committees scheduled in the various hearing rooms at 10:00 a.m. He also asked that, if possible, a copy of the Director's statement or such other paper as may be appropriate be provided in advance for distribution to the Committee members or at the very least that the Committee members can have in front of them during the Director's presentation.
